Key Points:

- WHATEVER is the doorway of us realizing our hearts' desires.
- WHATEVER transforms dead religion into Living Faith.
- The measure of our WHATEVER is the measure God uses for our miracle.
- WHATEVER is the key to change and transformation.

What was a great opportunity you now realize you missed?
Share about a great opportunity you capitalized on.

Read John 2:1-11 together. The WHATEVER factor is about doing what God says. What have you found to be the easiest and most difficult thing about doing what God says?

Share some examples of things you have desired in life. How do these desires line up with what God says you should do?

WHATEVER can lead to religion or faith. Has your motivation been more about obligation or desire? Explain. Discuss what helps you have the right motivation.

How would you describe the measure of what you give God? How have you seen that impact the measure of God's response? In what ways can you increase what you give so you can also see more of what God will do?

Share with the group one specific way you have seen your life change by doing what God says.

Pray for one another to grow in the desire to live by doing WHATEVER God says and experiencing all that God has for us.
