Do you ever have arguments with your friends? Tell about a time you had a conflict with a buddy that broke up your friendship?

*Abram left his country and friends behind because God told him to move to a new land. His nephew, Lot and his family moved Abram. It turned out to be a great place for both families until their servants began to argue and fight. Read Genesis 12:1-5 and 13:1-18.

- Where did Lot decide to live?
- What kind of land was left over for Abram?

- How will you put your friends first when you have disagreements?
